About the Music

Folk songs from the Appalachian Mountains and Shenandoah Valley inspired this work. Portrayed in this nostalgic melody are the scenic views of nature trails, flowing rivers, and wildflowers that enhance the rich beauty and history of our country.

Appalachian Hymn may be performed at a slow or fast tempo. The style of the piece is reminiscent of traditional hymns and popular folk tunes, with long, legato bows. In the staccato sections, notes should be played lightly and more brush-like, as opposed to short and choppy. Dynamics should also be musical and flowing, instead of rigid or exaggerated.
