About the Music

We are all wanderers on this earth.
Our hearts are full of wonder,
and our souls are deep with dreams.

—Gypsy proverb

Crystal balls, hoop earrings, and traveling caravans are some common images associated with Gypsies. Strolling violinists are still popular at restaurants and events today, supposedly originating from the Gypsy fiddler. Whether it is fictional myth or actual history, these nomadic people from all parts of Europe have fascinated us with their music, stories, and culture. The Hungarian Gypsies had the largest impact on what we now think of as traditional Gypsy music and dance. But there are also Spanish, Indian, Russian, and Jewish influences. The classic violin pieces Tzigane, Zigeunerweisen, and Csárdás inspired this work.

Any tempo will work for this piece. Performers have dramatic license to keep the tempo steady or make each section drastically different. The dance should be light and airy, in contrast with the legato sections. Trills and grace notes are optional.

Stay where there are songs.

—Gypsy proverb
