About the Music

The grace and simplicity of the Bagatelle meets the intensity of Beethoven in this G minor piece. Beethoven wrote three sets of bagatelles, or short, light character pieces, for the piano. This is the first of the Opus 119, the middle set.

Students should pay close attention to the dynamics and articulations throughout in order to capture the spirit of the piece. Directors should be aware of which section has the melody, as the flowing eighth note phrases weave from one instrument to another throughout.
