The Composer

William Owens (b. 1963) is a native of Gary, Indiana and a 1985 graduate of VanderCook College of Music in Chicago. A seasoned music educator, Mr. Owens is active as a composer, conductor and clinician throughout the United States and Canada. Mr. Owens has written nearly 200 commissioned and published works for concert band and string orchestra. His music has been programmed at prestigious venues such as the Midwest Clinic and appears on required music lists both nationally and abroad. Principal commissions include those from the California Band Directors Association, the Chicago Public Schools Bureau of Cultural Arts, the South Plains College Dept. of Fine Arts and the Texas University Interscholastic League. He is a consistent winner of the ASCAPPlus award and a two-time recipient of the Forrest L. Buchtel Citation for Excellence in Composition. Professional memberships include ASCAP, the American Composers Forum and the Texas MEA. William resides in Fort Worth, TX with his wife, Georgia.

Program Notes

The warrior Attila (406-453 A.D.), better known as Attila the Hun, was the powerful king and ruler of the Huns, one of the most violent tribes of Central Asia. While Attila was known to his own people as a just ruler, he was also an aggressive and ruthless warrior. He united the tribes of the Hun nation and expanded it to include many Germanic tribes. The brazen Hun leader attacked the Roman Empire in wars of extraction and ravaged lands from the Black Sea to the Mediterranean. Attila is equally well-known by his infamous moniker “Flagellum Dei” (Scourge of God).

This aggressive work is a musical depiction of Attila and his terrible army on the move. The music quickly introduces its main statement in bold fashion as the melodic concentration seamlessly moves back and forth between the upper and lower instruments. The mood then becomes tender before building back to its initial intrepid character.

Rehearsal Suggestions

An aggressive approach is needed to convey the true character of the music. Care must be taken by the violins and violas not to overpower when the cellos and basses carry the melody. As the work is largely forceful in nature, the section at measure 19 should be equally gentle.
