About the Music

Among Vivaldi's many violin concertos are his most famous four, Le quattro stagioni (The Four Seasons), each representing one of the four seasons of the year. In this arrangement, one theme from each concerto is placed in the chronology of the school year, beginning with autumn. Autumn is briefly interrupted with an eerie Halloween motif, and fall continues, concluding with the familiar Dutch Thanksgiving hymn, We Gather Together. Winter inevitably follows, and would not be complete without a taste of Jingle Bells. Spring suddenly appears and is interrupted with a well-deserved spring break to Hawaii with the well-known song Aloha 'Oe! The end of the school year brings summer weather, and finally graduation with the dignified tones of Elgar's Pomp and Circumstance. What a year it has been!
