About the Music

In 2015, I was hiking across Ireland. It was the middle of winter, and the storms were fierce and unforgiving. Luckily, Ireland has no shortage of warm, cozy pubs, and extraordinary hospitality to warm the soul. There was live music in almost every pub where I took refuge. It was nearly impossible to avoid hearing musicians performing traditional music on a daily basis. In recent decades, the Irish have embraced a tremendous reawakening in their musical heritage; and you are never far from some of the sweetest melodies in all the world.

I ventured to the charming city of Killarney, and wandered into Sheehan's Pub. I stumbled upon the most quintessentially Irish scene you can imagine: a centuries-old building, packed to the brim with locals, clapping, stomping and singing along with a very popular band. The energy and warmth were everything you imagine might them to be. I hope this piece will evoke a sense of what it was like to be at Sheehan's that evening. Let the music transport you to one of the loveliest and most inviting countries in the world!
