About the Music

Fall is my favorite time of year! The air cools, the streets smell of burning fireplaces, and the trees burst into a final display of loud amber and gold before they disappear into the silence of winter. This simple, main theme came to me on a recent fall afternoon while hiking in Oregon above Pacific Northwest farmlands with their dramatic mountain backdrops. Having just attended a few nearby harvest festivals and directly inspired by this imagery, the music evokes a vivid fall scene of villagers working the fields, raising houses, and celebrating the fall harvest.

The piece develops a single melody through a series of variations, exploring different keys, time signatures, and every section gets to play the melody. The piece builds to a joyous finale, when all the variations overlap in a cacophony of jubilant counterpoint.

Autumn Harvest is an energetic, uplifting, and festive piece of music. A fitting selection for any season of the year. I hope this piece will be a joyous addition to your next concert program!
