ABOUT TYLER

Tyler S. Grant is an internationally recognized composer, arranger, conductor, and clinician of music for concert bands, orchestras, and chamber ensembles of all levels. His music is featured regularly in performances by both region and all state honor ensembles and is also featured annually on Editor's or Publisher's Choice Repertoire Lists around the world. Since 2010, Tyler has regularly accepted commissions for new works and produced new publications for bands and orchestras each year. He credits his mentor Brian Balmages as pivotal to his success as a composer. Notable performance venues of his works include The Midwest Clinic, Carnegie Hall, Music for All's National Concert Band Festival, the Meyerson Symphony Center, the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade, Bands of America Grand Nationals, and numerous state-wide, national, and international music conferences and conventions. In addition to composing and arranging, Tyler enjoys conducting and clinic engagements with ensembles throughout the United States. He has served as a clinician with over 100 school instrumental music programs and honor groups across more than 25 states. Tyler was a contributing author for Alfred Music Publishing Company's Sound Innovations: Ensemble Development series and has contributed interviews to numerous podcasts and articles including School Band & Orchestra Magazine and The Instrumentalist. He currently resides in Atlanta, Georgia, and maintains an active composing and conducting schedule. To learn more about Tyler, visit www.tylersgrant.com!

PROGRAM NOTES

Sacred Harp is a tradition of American shape-note singing that originated in the 1800s. Drawing upon influences from European folk music, the tradition gained prominence in the southeastern United States and spread through publications like "The Sacred Harp" (1844). To this day, it remains a treasured tradition and is celebrated through annual gatherings.

When I was approached by Todd Chamberlain and Bryan Angel about writing a work for their students, I was asked if I could find some way to portray the scenes and traditions of the Kentucky heartland in a work that was also contemporary in nature. My first assignment was to identify some source music that would serve as the centerpiece. From my own days as a band student, I always have a special nostalgia for "The Promised Land" set to perfection by Clare Grundman in Kentucky 1800. Upon further research, I found that Clare Grundman was once the band/orchestra director at the commissioning school in the late 1930s. This gave me the perfect source material that both nods to Grundman, the school's history, yet also allows me to craft a piece with an entirely different structure.

The piece begins with an alto saxophone solo that portrays a Kentucky sunrise. As more sections enter, we then get the entirety of the main theme of The Promised Land. Through some harmonic shifts, the music expands into a warm chorale that reinforces the theme with a sense of optimism and passion. The work suddenly picks up speed with active percussion and flourishing interjections that take the listener to the grandstand at the Kentucky Derby. The melody is passed around while the action and suspense of the race builds. A set of lighter variations follow as the work builds to an energetic and passion-filled ending. An expansive and triumphant statement of the final melody brings back the passion of the beginning to leave a lasting impression of the Kentucky heartland.

Legacy of the Land was commissioned by the Morton Middle School Bands (Lexington, KY) under the direction of Todd Chamberlain & Bryan Angel. I also personally wish to dedicate this work to Todd Chamberlain in celebration of his retirement after 30 years of service to music education. It is my hope that the passion, excitement, and joy of this work in some way depicts the passion, excitement, and joy he has brought to countless students over the years.

SUGGESTED PERCUSSION PART ASSIGNMENTS

Here are a few suggested methods for assigning, omitting, and/or doubling parts based on your ensemble's unique instrumentation. The following is done with player engagement in mind, though you are welcome to adjust as you see fit.

Yes, you can photocopy parts!

With the legal purchase of any piece published by Tyler S. Grant Music Works, LLC, you are granted a limited license to photocopy parts for your students.

Some restrictions apply.

May I photocopy instrumental parts for my ensemble's unique instrumentation?

Yes! I completely understand that each ensemble will vary in their needs for instrumental parts. Parts occasionally go missing, as well. As long as the photocopies stay within your school/organization, you may photocopy as reasonably needed!

I am performing your work at an adjudicated performance and will need extra conductor scores!

May I copy those for the adjudicators to use?

No. While instrumental parts may be photocopied for ensemble use as described above, conductor's scores may not be photocopied. Additional scores can be purchased from my website or through an authorized retailer.

May I upload PDFs of the instrumental parts to a secured online platform for our musicians to access?

Yes! However, the online platform you use must be password protected and inaccessible to anyone outside of your school/organization. My team frequently conducts checks online and will demand any uploaded images or files that do not follow this guideline be removed immediately.

May I duplicate the sheet music and give it to another individual, school, or organization?

Absolutely not. Duplicating and distributing music (including unlicensed photocopying and digital duplication) without permission is a blatant disregard and violation of U.S. Copyright Law. Such instances will be investigated and prosecuted to the full extent of United States & International Copyright Law.

May I create not-for-profit audio/video recordings of your pieces and share them on social media and other websites?

Certainly! As a matter of fact, I love searching for performances of my music online and greatly appreciate you sharing it with others! If you need licensing and permissions for a for-profit recording, please contact me through my website. www.tylersgrant.com

I have more questions! What should I do?

Contact me through my website. I am always happy to answer your questions!

Thank you for following these guidelines! Copyright is not meant to be scary or intimidating; it's the only way composers and arrangers protect their intellectual property. Your purchase helps support my entire team. Many publishers have a different set of guidelines for photocopying and duplicating their music. These guidelines are only for Tyler's music published through Tyler S. Grant Music Works, LLC.
